

Tour of the Bluegrass – Bourbon + Horses + Racing

LEXINGTON, KY / April 12 – 15, 2018

(current info updated Feb.18th)

Welcome to the heart of the Bluegrass set amidst the horse farms and bourbon trails of Lexington, KY. Details are coming together nicely for a great 4-day weekend drive to include tours of local distilleries, horse farms and a beautiful day at Thoroughbred Club of America during the Spring Meet at the Keeneland Race Track -- the last leg of racing before the Kentucky Derby.

Group tours will be offered over the four days with advanced payments due by date of Friday, February 23. Plus, enjoy a one-on-one, Technical Talk Session with Ronny Shaver, Director and Technical Chairperson of the Southern California RROC Region, along with long-time restorer, David Trapp on Friday afternoon.

Of course, maps, details and times for all of the venues, plus other local favorites, will be included for "On Your Own" tours to let you customize your weekend adventure, if desired. I am more than happy to help you plan any small group excursion or activity beyond the tentative agenda below.

Agenda includes:

(Same location as the 2000 National RROC meet)
